

Summer 2009 Speakers

July 6 – 9: Reverend Alan Miller: Richfield Springs Bible Church, Richfield Springs, NY. Rev. Miller graduated from Davis College with a degree in Religious Education and has been pasturing for 18 years. He and his wife, Esther, have 4 wonderful children. Come be challenged as he gives a prophet look at the book of Obadiah and teaches us how to apply it to our lives.

July 13 – 16: Reverend Mark Monroe: Eaton Community Church, Eaton, NY. Pastor Mark and his wife, Katie, have 2 young children and 1 on the way (the 20th). He graduated from Frontier Bible School and did pulpit supply in the Binghamton area for a couple of years. We are anticipating God to encourage and challenge us through his messages.

July 20 – 23: Mr. Rick Strohm: Is an elder from Bellevue Gospel Chapel, Schenectady, NY. Rick and his wife, Joan, have 8 children which they have faithfully homeschooled. Rick will be speaking on “Attitude” We trust that God will teach us some new truths through his messages.

July 27 – 30: Rev. Fred Farrokh: is an Iranian-American of Muslim family background. Born in the United States, Fred met Jesus Christ as Savior in 1983 while reading through the Bible. He is the Executive Director of the JFM Network, a ministry which encourages Muslim-background believers and evangelism among Muslims in the Greater New York City area.

Fred Farrokh is Ordained as a Home Missionary with Elim Fellowship. He has served as Special Projects Officer for SAT-7 in Nicosia, Cyprus from 1998-2000, and has over a decade of local church and parachurch ministry in the US. He has an M.A. in Public Policy Analysis. In August 2005, he published “Jailbreak! A Christian’s Guide to Praying for the Muslim World.” He has ministered in Egypt, Lebanon, Israel, Cyprus, Bangladesh, Malaysia and Morocco. Rev. Farrokh has appeared on “The 700 Club.” He currently resides with his wife and five children in the Metro New York Area. His theme this summer will be “Stories for Heart from the Master Story Teller.”

August 3 – 6: Pastor Mike Troiano: Church of the Harvest, Riverhead, Long Island. Pastor Mike and his family have blessed Shiloh for many years. Pastor Mike has a wonderful way of applying God’s word in practical ways for everyday life. We pray that people will hear his messages and will be encouraged to live holy lives everyday.

August 10 – 13: Pastor Dan Lockwood: LifeHouse Christian Fellowship, Ilion, NY. Dan accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at the age of 17. Having once told God not to ask him to speak in front of a crowd, God said “yeah right!”

Dan lives with his wife, Jean, and six of their seven children in Ilion, NY. With a vision of seeing the church return to the standards that are laid out in the Bible, Dan offers honest, open, teaching that will draw you to draw closer to God and let Him give you the strength to stand and then stand some more when trouble comes. Raising God’s standard in the world and building your faith up in Christ, are some of the key points to the teaching and preaching Dan offers.
